

Midtown District Planning Charrette

Anchorage, Alaska

Client City of Anchorage	The public Charrette identified the vision for the future of Anchorage's Midtown in the context of current conditions, existing policies, and market trends. The Charrette outcomes included:	General recommendations regarding implementation actions, including priorities for public infrastructure and guidelines for development
Reference John McPherson HDR Alaska, Inc.	General recommendations regarding the overall character of Midtown – in terms of diversity and intensity of uses;	A documented community vision that described the look and feel of Midtown – streetscapes, uses, public space, landscaping, parking, pedestrian connections, etc.
Size Approximately 400 Acres	A design book that illustrated the features sought in the public spaces of Midtown, its sidewalks, streets, buildings and open spaces;	A documented community input on vision, goals, and objectives.
Designed 2004	General recommendations regarding solutions to circulation and parking issues; recommendation on the mix of existing and new roads, and transit and pedestrian circulation as solutions to serving increasingly dense development in Midtown's future;
Status In City approval phase
Services Public Design Charrette Charrette Booklet		